BEFORE

1946 The International Whaling Commission is set up to ensure conservation of whale stocks after centuries of hunting.

1972 Overfishing and a strong El Niño cause Peru’s coastal anchovy fisheries to crash—a blow to the national economy.

AFTER

2000 The World Wildlife Fund places cod on its endangered species list and launches a UK Oceans Recovery Campaign.

2010 The UNESCO Aichi Biodiversity Target 11 calls for a tenth of coastal and marine areas to be protected by 2020.

2023 The High Seas Treaty is signed, which enables common governance of 95 percent of the oceans’ volumes.

In 1992, one piece of legislation changed the ecological, socioeconomic, and cultural structure of Canada’s Atlantic Maritime provinces. John Crosbie, the Federal Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, placed a moratorium
