

A deep-sea salmon farm, built in China, begins its journey to Norway. The huge, semi-submersible cylinder aqua-farming platform is designed to produce 1.5 million salmon a year.