

Life cycle of the fig wasp.

Adult female wasp.

Wasp enters fig, lays eggs, pollinates flowers, and dies.

Inside a mature fig, male wasps fertilise new females and dig escape tunnels for them.

New-generation adult female wasps pick up pollen and emerge from the fig.

BACK TO ARTICLE