

A species becomes extinct in one habitat patch.

A species colonises an empty habitat patch.

Extinction and colonisation are dynamic processes.

A local extinction (extirpation) does not signal the extinction of the species.

BACK TO ARTICLE