

An algal feedback loop.

Lots of clouds mean heat from the Sun is reflected back into space.

Cooler temperatures mean lower algal growth and less DMS gas.

Less DMS means fewer clouds.

Fewer clouds mean more heat from the Sun reaches Earth.

Warmer temperatures mean higher algal growth and more DMS.

More DMS means more cloud.