

Natural causes:

Volcanic eruptions.

Shifting plate tectonics.

Ocean currents.

Human causes:

Deforestation.

Farming practices.

Fossil fuel burning.

Industrial emissions.

These leads to increased amounts of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere, causing climate change.

BACK TO ARTICLE