

Individual actions can reduce waste, households in the developed world add a tonne of waste to landfill each year.

Refuse plastic bags and excessive packaging. Buy product in large containers or without packaging.

Rethink as you shop. Do you really need what you are buying?

Reuse what you can or pass it on to someone else who can use it.

Recycle what can’t be used so that it can be turned into new products.