In one attempt, exactly four (neither more nor less coins can be turned upside down.) What is the minimum total number of attempts in which the 'T' faces of all the 10 coins can be brought to be the upper faces?

(a) 4 (b) 7

(c) 8 (d) Not possible

Ans. (a) : On the 1st attempt and coins are over turned.

Now, 6 coins are left

2nd the next turn 4 more are overturned and only two are left.

Now in 3rd attempt we take one more from remaining two coins and any 3 from previously turned ones.

Finally in 4th attempt the 1 left coin and 3 coins from previous steps which have already over turned twice can be over turned.

Hence in 4 attempts required process can be completed.

5. Which one of the following four Vedas contains an account of magical charms and spells?

(a) Rig-veda (b) Yajur-veda

(c) Atharvaveda (d) Sama-veda

Ans. (c) : Atharvaveda contains mantras on three topics - Gyana (Knowledge), Karma (deeds), and Upasana (invocation). It is important from the point of view of knowing the history of science in India. It is also collection of spells and charms which are popular among the people. This Veda throws light on the beliefs of the people, some of the Mantras are meant to bring success in life, while some were used to ward off evil spirits responsible for disease and sufferings. This Veda is believed to be a later composition and contains some non-Aryan material. It seems to have been composed when a synthesis of Aryan and non-Aryan cultures took place.
