34. Deputy Chairman, Planning Commission, May 1999. It is interesting to note here that the composition of the polity in Centre was dominated by the BJP while the Deputy Chairman, Planning Commission was K.C. Pant (an old congress man) – continuity in the basic ideas and objectives of planning being maintained.

38. The Preamble was declared by the Supreme Court as an integral part of the Constitution and any amendments amounting to a change in its meaning and spirit amounted to the violation of the 'basic feature' of the Constitution (Keshvanand Barti, 1973 and S.R. Bommai, 1994 cases). This further magnified the objectives and role of Planning in India.
39. As the different Articles of the Directive Principles got interpreted being complementary parts of the Fundamental Rights, their enforcement became obligatory for the Governments in coming times-still broadening the objectives of planning in the country.
40. Distribution of Legislative Power, List-III, Entry 20.
41. Though formal planning commenced in the fiscal 1951–52, the planning has already commenced with the Industrial Policy Resolution, 1948. More so, the Prime Minister of India who headed the NPC had already taken firm decision that India would be a planned economy by August 1937 (Congress Working Committee, Wardha) itself. Thus, the economy takes its first wink in the planned era!

There was a provision of only three Cabinet Ministers as its ex-officio members namely the finance, Human Resource Development and Defence upto July 2004 when the United Progressive Alliance Government increased it to include the other three cabinet Ministers-the Railways, Agriculture and Information Technology. It has been only once in the history of the PC that it had six Cabinet Ministers as its ex-officio members i.e. in the final years of the Rajiv Gandhi regime (The Economic Times, 16 July 2004, N.
