small price differences, called the spread. He has no contact with the investing public.

In the London Stock Exchange he is called a market-maker while in the New York Stock Exchange he is called a specialist. The Bombay Stock Exchange has made it mandatory for every company with a share capital of over Rs. 3 cr to appoint jobbers or market-makers if it seeks enlistment. Such an arrangement enables investors to buy and sell shares on the stock exchange and thus liquidity increases.

Market –Maker

Functions as an intermediary in the market ready to buy and sell securities. He simultaneously quotes two-way rates—like a jobber basically with the only difference that he quotes two-way rates, for buying and selling at the same time.[8]

On the floor of India's OTCEI (Over the Counter Stock Exchange of India Ltd.), only market-makers are allowed to play. In the money market of India, the Discount and Finance House of India (DFHI) is the chief market–maker[9].

Since he quotes the selling price while buying a particular share, he makes market for that share, hence such a name.

The NASDAQ of the USA is a market– maker's stock exchange where they are connected by the web-enabled trading terminals.

SEBI

The regulator of Indian stock market, set up under the Security and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (as a non-statutory body set on April 12, 1988 through a Government Resolution in an effort to give the Indian stock market an organised structure) with its head office in Mumbai. Its initial paid-up capital was Rs. 50 crore provided by the promoters—the IDBI, the IFCI and the ICICI.

The Board of SEBI comprises 9 members excluding the Chairman—one member each from the Ministries of Finance and Law, one member from
