Rajiv Gandhi Scheme for Empowerment of Adolescent Girls (RGSEAG)-Sabla

Sabla now operational in 205 selected districts aims at "all-round development of adolescent girls" in the age group 11-18 years and making them self-reliant with a special focus on "out-of-school" girls. The scheme has two major components, nutrition and non-nutrition. Nutrition is being given in the form of 'take home rations' or 'hot cooked meals' to out-of-school 11-14 year old girls and all adolescent girls in the 14 -18 age group. The non-nutrition component addresses the developmental needs of 11-18 year old adolescent girls who are provided iron-folic acid supplementation, health check-up and referral services, nutrition and health education, counseling/guidance on family welfare, skill education, guidance on accessing public services, and vocational training. The target of the scheme is to provide nutrition to 1 crore adolescent girls in a year.

Indira Gandhi Matritva Sahyog Yojana (IGMSY)

The IGMSY is a conditional cash transfer scheme for 'pregnant and lactating women' implemented initially on pilot basis in 53 selected districts in the country from October 2010. The scheme is now covered under the Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT) programme with nine districts being included in the first phase.

National Mission for Empowerment of Women (NMEW)

This initiative for holistic empowerment of women through better convergence and engendering of policies, programmes, and schemes of different ministries was operationalized in 2010-11. Under the Mission, institutional structures at state level including State Mission Authorities headed by Chief Ministers and State Resource Centres for Women (SRCWs) for spearheading initiatives for women's empowerment have been established across the country.

Rashtriya Mahila Kosh (RMK)

The RMK provides 'micro-credit' in a quasi-informal manner, lending to intermediate micro-credit organisations (IMOs) across states – was launched in 1993. It focuses on poor women and their empowerment through the provision of credit for livelihood-related activities.
