many effective programmes/schemes in this regard:

- The Support to State Extension Programmes for Extension Reforms Scheme was launched in 2005-06, aiming at making the extension system 'farmer driven' as well as accountable to farmers by providing for new institutional arrangements for technology dissemination. This has been done through setting up of Agricultural Technology Management Agencies (ATMA) at district level to operationalise the extension reforms;
- 'Mass media support' to agriculture focusing on Doordarshan infrastructure and All India Radio (AIR) broadcasting agriculture-related informations;
- Kisan Call Centres (KCC) to provide agricultural information to the farming community through toll free telephone lines;
- Agri-clinic and agribusiness centres by agriculture graduates to provide extension services to farmers on 'payment basis' through setting up of economically viable self–employment ventures, and information dissemination through agri fairs;
- Extension Education Institutes at Nilokher (Haryana), Rajendra Nagar (Andhra Pradesh), Anand (Gujarat), and Jorhat (Assam) are operating at 'regional level' to improve the 'skills and professional' competence of extension field functionaries of agriculture;
- There are model training courses on thrust areas of agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry, and fisheries with the objective of improving the professional competence, upgrading the knowledge and developing technical skills; and
- MANAGE, Hyderabad, an apex Institute at the national level, provides training to middle and senior level officers of agriculture.

Q. 39 Write a contemporary note on the 'changing dynamics' of the global economy in reference to India.

Ans. The global economy has gone for a big change in its dynamics over the 'last two decades' – and has every potential to go for further change in the coming decades. The shares of major economies in global GDP,
