- As corruption is supposed to be very high in India, even politicians are believed to park their black money there.
- They accelerate hawala, bribery, etc. in India.

Recently, we have seen some effective action being taken by the victims nations to unearth their funds parked in these havens such as the USA, Germany and many of the OECD nations. Recently, the Government of India has also started such initiatives.

Q. 47 Write a note on the restructuring of the Centrally Sponsored Schemes into the new Additional Central Assistance implemented from the financial year 2013-14.

Ans. The Planning Commission (PC), with the commencement of 12th Plan, proposed 'rationalisation' and 'restructuring' of the 16 Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSS) into Additional Central Assistance (ACA) Schemes. The proposal has been accepted by the Cabinet and the ACA will become effective from 2013-14. As per the PC, together with the government this will 'improve the efficiency' of the Schemes. After the restructuring, the situation will be as below.

- It will give more flexibility to the states to utilise the funds,
- It will also give the Planning Commission 'absolute control' over the quantity of money to be released.
- The CSS funds till now were routed through the concerned Central ministries,
- Under the new set up the Planning Commission will release the funds directly to the states on the recommendation of the Ministry of Finance.
- The concerned ministries will now only monitor the implementation of the schemes, which would be evaluated by an external agency.
- The schemes to be restructured include flagship programmes such as the Integrated Child Development Scheme, the Mid Day Meal Scheme, the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme, the Indira Awas Yojana, the
