A person who works on another person's land for wages in money or kind or share is regarded as an agricultural labourer. He or she has no risk in the cultivation, but merely works on another person's land for wages. An agricultural labourer has no right of lease or contract on land on which he/she works.

AGRICULTURAL MARKETS

Agricultural Markets are regulated and managed under the Agricultural Produce Market Act (APMC Act) enacted by the respective state governments. The Central government provides guidance and assistance in regulation and development of agricultural-produce markets. 7,521 markets have been brought under regulation upto March this year. To handle increasing quantity, more and more markets have been brought under regulation over the years. There were only 286 regulated markets in 1950 on an average. A regulated market serves 459 sq. km. but the National Commission on Agriculture recommended that a regulated market should serve farmers within a 5 km. radius and a command area of 80 sq. km.
