Products being used as the means of payment as in the traditional barter system. Such practices take place generally when the confidence in money has fell down (as for example in the situations of high inflation and high depreciation).

COMMUNITISATION

A method of privatising public service delivery without going for the tendering process. It is done by transfering powers including financial powers to the user community who will take up the job of revenue collection along with an effective and more practical governance of the service delivery. This model is bereft of profit motive and so, more transparent.

Service delivery in communitised elementary schools and health service institutions has improved considerably and power tariff collection has risen by 100 per cent since the reform began in 2002 in Nagaland–Secretary, Union Ministry of Steel Raghaw Sharan Pandey who did it in Nagaland as its Chief Secretary.

COMPARATIVE ADVANTAGE

It is about identifying activities that an individual, a firm or a country can do most efficiently, being together.

The idea, usually credited to David Ricardo, underpins the case of free trade. It suggests that countries can gain from trading with each other even if one among them is more efficient (i.e., it has an absolute advantage) in every kind of economic activity.

CONSOLS

This is the abbreviated form of consolidated stock. The government bonds which have no maturity and thus have an indefinite life–are tradable on the
