DEINDUSTRIALISATION

Sustained decrease in the share of the secondary sector in the total output (GDP) of an economy.

DEMAT ACCOUNT

It is a way of holding securities in electronic or dematerialised form. Demat form of shares can be traded online. As such, the transactions are concluded much faster, which prevents theft, misuse, forging of original shares certificates or other documents, and allows an investor to buy or sell shares in any quantity. Demat account allows for faster refund of money in case application is not accepted. Demat accounts are offered by banks, and the dematerialised stock is held by the depository (National Securities Depository Ltd.–[NSDL] or Central Securities Depository Ltd.–[CSDL]). The investor needs to fill up the requisite forms, submit the documents and pay the applicable charges in order to have the demat account opened.

DEMERGER

The breaking-up of a company into more separate companies. Such companies are usually formed through mergers.

DERIVATIVES

The financial assets that “derive” their value from other assets, such as shares, debentures, bonds, securities, etc.
