infallibility and, 69, 71–73, 103, 106–7 intersubjective realities and, 22, 27, 287 memory and, 23–24, 43, 44
nations and, 33
personal revelations and, 71–72 populism and, xxvii, xxviii
self-correcting mechanisms and, 35–36, 104, 106–7, 108–9 social credit systems and, 291–92
social order and, 36, 71 stories and, 19, 22–24, 38, 416*n*19 totalitarianism and, 173–76
truth–order balance and, 38
utilitarianism and, 283, 284
See also Christianity; holy books; Judaism; religious institutions religious institutions, 72–73, 76–77, 80, 81, 88, 91, 173–76
See also Catholic Church
Replika, 211
Republic (Plato), 34, 410–11*n*21
reputation market, 251–52, 253
rigidity/pliability, 314–16
robots, 218, 316–17
Rohingya massacre (Myanmar), 195–200
alignment problem and, 272 alternative views and, 197–98 computer network goals and, 199, 259, 265 computers as independent agents and, 197, 198–200 culpability for, 199–200
deontology and, 278–79
error-enhancing mechanisms and, 265
misinformation/disinformation and, 195, 196
self-correcting mechanisms and, 264
tech company culpability and, 199, 200, 219, 220, 263
Roman Empire
autocracy vs. totalitarianism and, 154–55, 156
centralisation of power and, 118–19, 356–58, 372–73
damnatio memoriae, 351
democracy and, 139, 141, 142, 143–44