EXERCISES

1. What do you mean by actors in international system? Do you think that the state is the only actor in the international system? Justify your answer.

2. Discuss the crisis of territorial state in the face of globalization.

3. What do you mean by non-state actors? Examine the role of non-state actors in international relations.

4. What do you mean by national power? Discuss the elements of national power.

5. What are the main components of national power? Elucidate.

6. Bring out the significance of national interest in international politics.