getting merged with the First. Therefore, more than the term Third World what is in vogue nowadays are the terms like developing world or developing countries.