balanced world in all spheres of life. The significance underlying the themes is the necessity to ensure gender equality to achieve sustainable development.