community to fight terrorism. India and the other South Asian states signed the SAARC Regional Convention on Suppression of Terrorism, at Kathmandu on 4 November 1987. India continues her fight against terrorism along with the world community.