proudly considers persons of Indian origin all over the world as purveyors of its interests in other countries.