Midnight's Children (Salman Rushdie) Ministry of External Affairs Mishra, Brajesh
Modi, Narendra decision to break off talks with Pakistan Digital India initiative foreign policy genuine nonalignment goals of foreign economic policy
  'Make in India' initiative worldview
Mohan, C. Raja
Mughal Empire
  personality driven administration Mukherjee, Pranab
Muni, S.D.
Murty, Kotha Satchidananda Muslim League

Naipaul, Sir Vidiadhar Surajprasad (V.S.) Narayanan, K.R.
National Democratic Alliance (NDA) nationalism nationalist elite
National Security Council (NSC) Nehru, Jawaharlal annexation of colonial territories attitude towards Soviet socialism and scepticism criticism against cynicism towards American capitalism disagreements with Patel on foreign policy or economics global stature on India and China as the rising powers on India's diversity knowledge of foreign affairs letters, speeches and writings Nonalignment ideology personality and views of policy of peace and friendship towards all countries pronouncements on international affairs realism and idealism support for civilian nuclear energy Nehruvianism approach to economics China policy disarmament diplomacy doctrine of defence by friendship idealistic presumptions India's neighbourhood policies