volume

The amount of space inside a container, or the actual amount of material in the container.

Example

The volume of this object is 36 cubic units.

Some units of volume are:

(i) For the volume of solids:

| | |
|---|---|
| cubic centimetre | $cm^3$ |
| cubic metre | $m^3$ |

(ii) For the volume of liquids:

| | |
|---|---|
| millilitre | mL |
| litre | L |
| kilolitre | kL |
| megalitre | ML |

See capacity, cubic centimetre, cubic metre, cubic unit, section Metric relationships on page 149, solid

vulgar fraction

See simple fraction

