

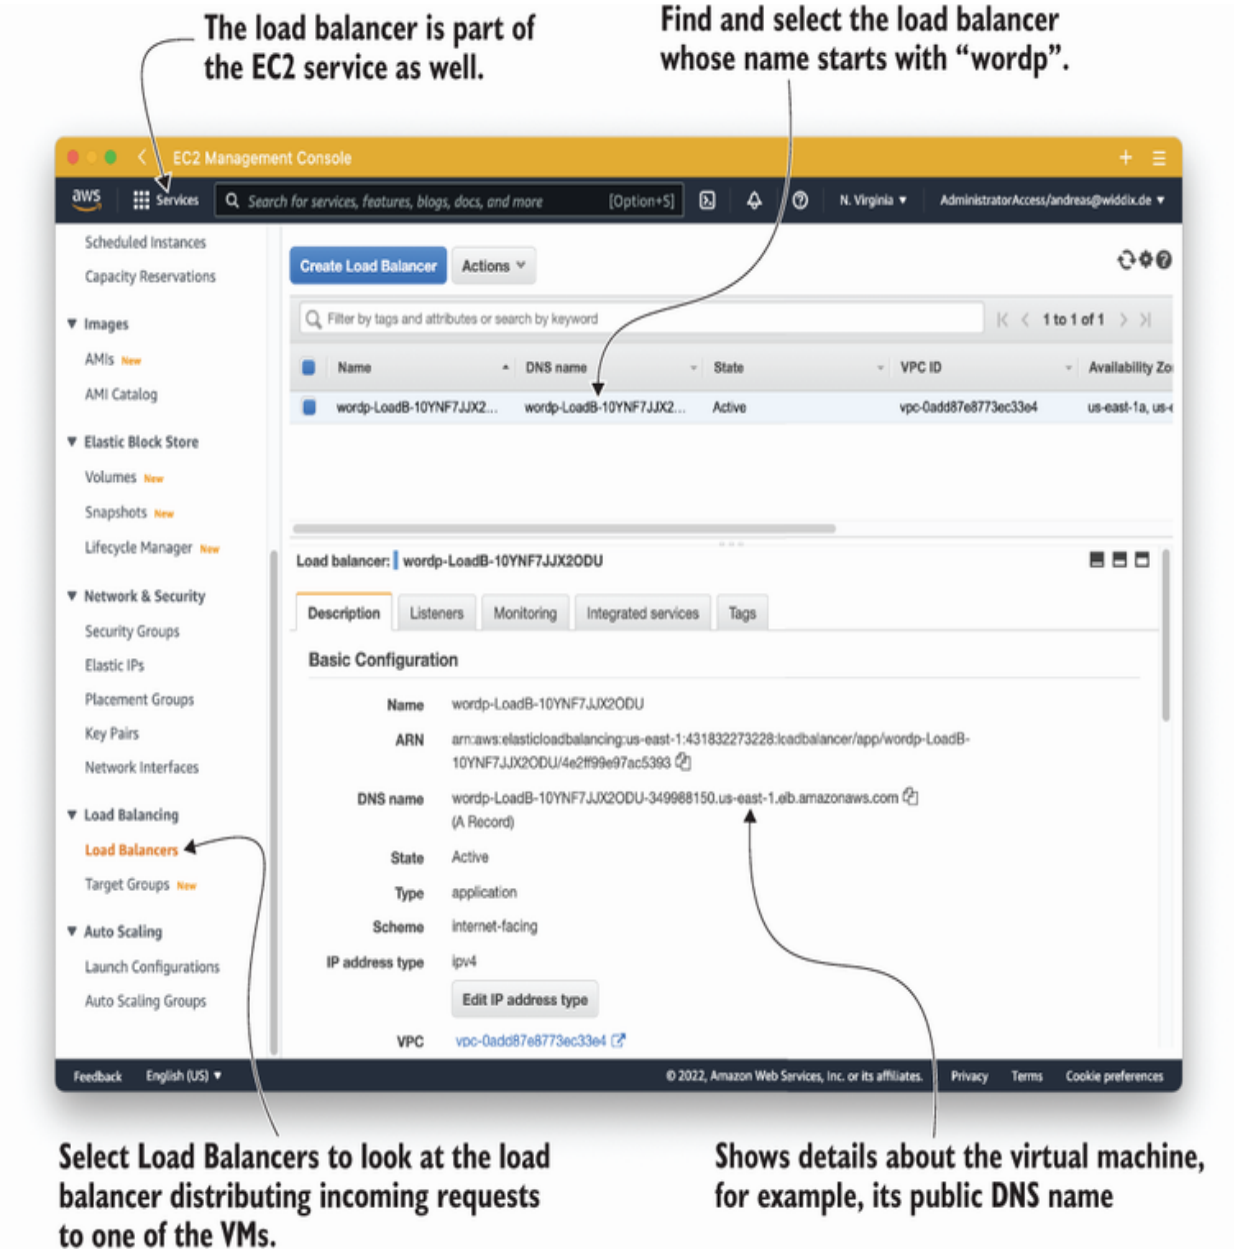

Figure 2.9 Get to know the load balancer.

The load balancer forwards an incoming request to one of your virtual machines. A target group is used to define the targets for a load balancer. You'll find your target group after switching to Target Groups through the subnavigation options of the EC2 service, as shown in figure 2.10.