

Figure 6.8 Monitoring overview: Get insights into your Lambda function's invocations.

By default, your Lambda function sends log messages to CloudWatch. Figure 6.9 shows the log group named /aws/lambda/website-health-check that was created automatically and collects the logs from your function. Typically, a log group contains multiple log streams, allowing the log group to scale. Click