India-Mercosur pact cuts paperwork for electronics trade

India and Mercosur have signed the first additional protocol to their preferential trade agreement, accepting electronic certificates of origin with the same legal validity as paper, allowing electronics manufacturers, component suppliers, exporters, and importers a potentially faster route for preferential trade paperwork, with lower costs and processing time expected.

Zollner-Avalon form India JV

Zollner Elektronik and Avalon Technologies have formed a joint venture for PCB assembly and system integration, with Avalon adding cable assemblies, wire harnesses, inductive components, plastics, and machining. Initially serving the Indian operations of Zollner's existing global customers, the joint venture (JV) supports supply-chain localisation and gives Zollner faster access to Indian capacity.
