This is a wonderful sweet, earthy soup that can be enjoyed all year round. For the best flavor, serve it warm rather than piping hot.

9oz (250g) Swiss chard (or spinach)
4½oz (125g) Red Giant mustard, kale, or more chard

1 garlic clove, finely chopped
2 tbsp olive oil
3¼ cups vegetable stock
2 x 14oz (400ml) cans coconut milk
salt and freshly ground black pepper

1 Prepare the chard and/or Red Giant mustard or kale, stripping the green leaves from the stems and shredding it into ribbons.

2 Cook the onion and garlic gently in the oil for about 10 minutes, or until soft. Add the shredded greens, stock, and coconut milk and bring to a boil. Simmer for 10 minutes, then process everything together in a food processor or blender. Season to taste with salt and pepper and serve.

SWISS CHARD
Now a familiar sight at the farmers' market or supermarket. The leaves should be firm and green, not limp or yellowing. Do not wash it before storing in the fridge as it may wilt, and use it quickly for maximum nutritional value.
