Monetary and Liquidity Aggregates

The third working group recommended two different financial aggregates namely, monetary aggregates and liquidity aggregates. The working group observes: "The partition between monetary and liquidity aggregates has been dictated by the fact while the first relates only to monetary liabilities of the Central Bank and depository corporations', i.e. the banking system, the latter also includes select items of financial liabilities of non-depository corporations, such as development financial companies and non-banking financial companies accepting deposits from the public apart from post office savings."

The development finance institutions which do not accept time deposit from public are called non-depository
