5 Officially Laspeyres's formula is used in index construction but for the simplicity a simple formula without weightage is used.
6 Two weeks time lag means the index of a particular month is published after two weeks. For example, index of October month is published in November second week.
7 It is discontinued from 2012
8 Economic Survey 2008–09, p.67.